In Memoriam

In loving memory of our husband, father and grandfather, Curtis Whitted, who passed away four years ago today, May 23, 1970.

God knows how much we miss you hearts ache with sorrow
Our eyes shed many tears
since our precious one is gone
The shock we received
we still remember well

No treasure on earth can replace you,
Your loss is to great to express
To us who love you so dearly
Your memory will always be with us old.

They say time heals a broken heart,
And helps one to bear
Four years has passed since we lost you
And our hearts are still sore
Curtis yet.

Modernistic Club News

The Modernistic Club met at the home of Mrs. T. W. Hamlet at 6 p.m. Friday, in a special call meeting. The meeting was well attended, with President Hamlet presiding.

The business meeting was brief and to the point. The members came to the conclusion on a place for an outing for the spring activity, which will be held the 2nd week in June. All members paid their annual club dues. Immediately following the business meeting a lovely repast was served by the hostess. After the repast the meeting adjourned until after the outing was over. The meeting was quite informative.

Sunday, May 19th, was certally a lovely day for regular service at Galilee Baptist Church. Pastor Lawing preached an impressive message from the subject, "A Woman who kept Her Vows". The message was beautifully explained to all who were present. Those who were present enjoyed helpful information by coming to the morning worship. The Senior Choir rendered beautiful music for the morning worship.

Just before the morning worship Mrs. Dorothy Stowe presented gifts to Mrs. Lucy Tibbs, oldest mother, Mrs. Brenda Johns, youngest mother, and Mrs. Mary C. Paulett, most faithful mother of Galilee Baptist Church. The Junior Choir and the Ushers' Auxitors' Aid Club selected the gifts to the three honorees.

The Church School was well attended and the offering was good. The teachers and Supt. J. A. Watson are on hand on time for a very interesting lesson for discussion. Subject for the day is "Some Witness Provokes Controversy". Acts 21:10-14, 17-24. Memory selection is "I Am ready not only to be imprisoned, but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus" - Acts 21:13 b. All went home feeling that the morning was well spent.

We are still sending up prayers for those who are on the sick list at this time here at home and else where.

At 3 p.m. I am told that the Men's Club had a very successful 23rd annual Men's Day program. There was a large number who turned out to help make the program a success. Special guest were the Rev. Moore of 5th Street Baptist Church and his faithful choir from Lynchburg. The members of the club gave an account of a very very fine program. The Men's Club extend heartfelt thanks to sister churches and friends for helping so willingly, to make the program a huge success.

In and out of town:

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin from Bronix, N.Y. moved into their new home here on Saturday, May 18th. The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Martin to Historic Appomattox. Mrs. Martin is a native of Appomattox.

Mr. Theodore Martin and Miss Karen Washington, who are law students of Howard University and American University, respectively, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George Martin here over the week end. Theodore (Teddy) Martin, is the youngest son of the Martins. The visitors gave an account of a very, very delightful, week end. The vistors reside in D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bigger of Yoke, Pa., spent the week end with Mrs. Maggie Tibbs and family. All seemed to have had a lovely time. The Biggers returned to their homes on Sunday evening.

The Martins and Stevens visited Mrs. Maude Goff and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ferguson Monday afternoon. The Stevens and Martins enjoyed the evening very much in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Geneva Wiggins was called to New York City Monday, due to the illness of her sister who lives in N.Y. We trust that Mrs. Wiggins and Mrs. O. W. Smith's sister will soon recover.

Misses Stevens and E. H. Jordan attended their last sorority meeting for this school year in Lynchburg Sunday at 5 p.m. Miss Stevens' meeting was held at Howard Johnson's Rt. 29 N. at 5. Both Misses Stevens and Jordan enjoyed their meetings very much.
